

EPA and DHA Omega-3 Products You Can Trust

Members of GOED, the Global Organization for EPA and DHA Omega-3s, have all made a pledge to uphold standards of quality and ethics that are stricter than regulations found around the world. Learn about the GOED Voluntary Monograph and what those standards are. Or simply look for the GOED Proud Member logo on product packaging or websites.

Here are some of the products you may find in the United States, in stores or online. On the next page is a complete list of GOED member companies that make omega-3 dietary supplements sold around the world.
